Instructions for Completing Texas 9-1-1 Wireless Emergency Service Fee Report

WHO MUST FILE - Wireless service providers must file this report and remit the 9-1-1 wireless emergency service fees due each month.

Any person who sells prepaid wireless telecommunications services must file report 54-104 and remit the prepaid 9-1-1 wireless emergency fee.

WHEN TO FILE - File this report and remit the fees due on or before the 20th day of the month following the end of the month in which the fees are collected. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday, the next business day is the due date. You must file a report, even if no 9-1-1 wireless emergency service fee is due.

DEFINITIONS -

"9-1-1 wireless emergency service fee" - The fee collected by a wireless service provider from its subscribers at a rate of $0.50 per month for each wireless telecommunications connection.

"Wireless service provider" - A provider of commercial mobile service under Section 332(d), Federal Telecommunications Act of 1996 (47 U.S.C. Section 151 et seq.), Federal Communications Commission rules, and the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 (Pub. L. No. 103-66), and includes a provider of wireless two-way communication service, radio-telephone communications related to cellular telephone service, network radio access lines or the equivalent, and personal communication service. The term does not include a provider of: a service whose users do not have access to 9-1-1 service; a communication channel used only for data transmission; a wireless roaming service or other non-local radio access line service; or a private telecommunications service.

You have certain rights under Chapters 552 and 559, Government Code, to review, request and correct information we have on file about you. Contact us at the address or phone number listed on this form.
