

555 – Fiscal 2025 Semi-Annual HUB Report Supplemental Letter

Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service is dedicated to providing full and equal opportunities to minority, women, and service-disabled veteran-owned businesses. We are committed to increasing the participation of Historically Underutilized Businesses (HUBs) in our procurement opportunities and to making a good-faith effort to meet or exceed HUB goals.

Mentor Protege Agreement:

Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service is proud to foster a Mentor Protege Agreement between Commonwealth Trading Company, Inc. and Best Buy.

As an agency, we participated in 18 HUB outreach events this fiscal year, including:

- HUB Discussion Work Groups
- NAEP TOAL Regional Vendor Expo
- HMSDC Expo 2024
- Bexar County's 24th Annual SMWVBO Conference
- TAMU Meet and Greet: Bid Source Technology
- TFS & TEEX HUB Vendor Forum
- DMV's 11th Annual Marking for Success HUB Expo – Co-Sponsored Event
- TAMUS Monthly HUB Round Table

At Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, we purchase goods and services to deliver research-based educational programs and solutions across Texas. We are dedicated to improving the well-being of the land, people, and animals in our state. We recognize the importance of the HUB Program and actively seek out HUBs through our good-faith efforts and outreach events to fulfill these unique procurement needs.
