Important Information

GENERAL INFORMATION

This application is for use in requesting special appraisal for restricted use public access airport property under Tax Code, Chapter 23, Subchapter G. You are entitled to have property appraised under Subchapter G for the tax year for which you are applying if you meet all five of the following conditions.

1. You own the property on Jan. 1.
2. The property is at least five acres in size.
3. Its use is restricted by deed for at least 10 years as a public access airport as provided by Subchapter G.
4. The property has been devoted exclusively for use as public access airport property for the preceding year.
5. You are using and intend to use the property exclusively as public access airport property in the current year.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

You must furnish all information and documentation required by this application so that the chief appraiser is able to determine whether the statutory qualifications for special appraisal have been met. This document and all supporting documentation must be filed with the appraisal district office in each county in which the property is located. Do not file this document with the Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts. A directory with contact information for appraisal district offices may be found on the Comptroller's website.

APPLICATION DEADLINES

The completed application and supporting documents must be submitted to the appraisal district before May 1 of the tax year for which you request the special appraisal. For good cause shown, the chief appraiser may extend the deadline for filing the application by written order for a single period not to exceed 60 days.

CHIEF APPRAISER ACTIONS

The chief appraiser shall, as soon as practicable but not later than 90 days after the later of the following two dates: date the applicant's land is first eligible for appraisal as public access airport property; or the date the applicant provides the information necessary for the chief appraiser to determine the applicant's right to appraisal as public access airport property, make one of the following decisions:

- approve the application and grant appraisal as public access airport property;
- disapprove it and ask for more information; or
- deny the application.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION REQUEST

The chief appraiser may disapprove the application and request additional information to evaluate this application. This request must be delivered via a written notice to the applicant as soon as practicable but not later than the 30th day after the application was filed with the appraisal district. The notice must specify the additional information the applicant must provide so the chief appraiser can make a determination. The applicant must provide the additional information not later than the 30th day after the date of the request or the application will be denied. The chief appraiser may extend this deadline for a single period not to exceed 15 days for good cause shown.

DENIED APPLICATIONS

The chief appraiser may deny an application. He or she must notify the applicant in writing not later than the fifth day after the determination by certified mail. It must state and fully explain each reason for the denial. The landowner can file a protest of the denial with the appraisal review board.

DUTY TO NOTIFY

Once restricted use appraisal for public access airport property is allowed, an application does not have to be filed annually during the term of the deed restriction unless the ownership of the property changes or eligibility for the appraisal ends. The chief appraiser may require a new application to be filed to confirm that the property is currently eligible for the special appraisal by sending written notice and an application form. If eligibility for the restricted use appraisal ends, the property owner must notify the appraisal office in writing before May 1 after the eligibility ends. If the deed restriction on airport property receiving special appraisal expires, a rollback in taxes will be imposed on the property for each of the three years preceding the year the deed restriction expires. If the deed restriction is violated before the restriction expires, a penalty is imposed for the year the violation occurred.
