The United States government revoked the major components of all economic sanctions against Sudan and the Government of Sudan, effective October 12, 2017. As such, the U.S. Sudanese Sanctions Regulations were amended by the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control and authorize all transactions previously prohibited by the Regulations and Executive Orders 13067 and 13412, effective as of January 17, 2017.

However, the changes do not authorize transactions that are prohibited under the U.S. Darfur Sanctions Regulations (31 C.F.R. part 546) or Executive Orders 13400 or 13664. Accordingly, the Comptroller's office will continue monitoring for companies that meet the pertinent statutory definition of a scrutinized Company, i.e., companies that have been complicit in the Darfur genocide during any preceding 20-month period.
